

You are cordially invited to join Sister Cities of Hampton

Your tax deductible membership is appreciated. Membership fees help us continue to build relationships that promote harmony and appreciation for different cultures and mutual acceptance between citizens of Hampton and our sister cities.

Regular mailings, e-mails and invitations to events are awarded to SCH members. Admissions to these events are discounted (or often FREE) for current SCH members. Additionally you may choose to host a foreign guest, work on a SCH committee, or travel to a Sister City as part of a delegation.

Your membership will strengthen our existing ties with Vendome, Anyang, Southampton, and Pietermaritzburg and will help to extend the reach of SCH to Hampton students and citizens

Thank you for your interest and support. Our membership classifications are listed below. The benefits of each classification of membership are listed on the back of this sheet. Please feel free to call or e-mail with any questions or for any ideas for new programs and services that you think will enhance our mission.

Sister Cities of Hampton (SCH) has served as an ambassador of the City for over fifty years. It has recently been incorporated as a non-profit corporation in the Commonwealth of Virginia and has been designated as an IRS 501(c)3 not-for-profit group. SCH is committed to growing its existing sister city relationships and expanding opportunities for citizen and student involvement in activities with our sister cities.
